MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Personnel Director

29 October 1953

SUBJECT :

25X1C

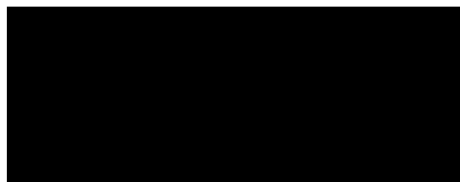

25X1A

1. Returned herewith is [REDACTED] memorandum to this Office, dated 28 September 1953, together with the memorandum from [REDACTED] dated 19 October 1953, concerning the above subject. I have talked to Colonel White about this problem and he concurs in the general findings of the Personnel Office and the memorandum by [REDACTED] as approved by the Chief of Administration, DD/P. 25X1A

2. It is requested that you give consideration as to whether or not this policy decision should be incorporated in an appropriate part of the regulations. It might well be that the present Part XIV of the Confidential Funds Regulations, as they are to be rewritten, would be an appropriate place for incorporation of this policy.

3. Great care should be taken in handling all situations of this general nature that there is no avoidance of T/O ceilings whether intentional or unintentional.
